About Bankside Gallery

Bankside Gallery is the perfect venue for both private and corporate events, ideally situated along the Thames path in the heart of London's South Bank – and just a bridge away from the City.

Home to the Royal Watercolour Society, and the Royal Society of Painter-Printmakers, our contemporary exhibitions provide an elegant and sophisticated backdrop to match the gallery's stunning surroundings.

Whether you're looking for a venue for corporate hospitality, a book launch, a wine tasting, or a birthday party, the Gallery's unique and distinctive setting, and friendly and stylish atmosphere, sets it apart from the rest. Whatever the event, our helpful and experienced staff are on hand to advise with every stage of your plans.

Rate of hire

The standard hire charge is £325 + VAT per hour.

Hours

The gallery is available for events from 6pm until 11pm.

Capacity

We can accommodate up to 200 people for a drinks reception.

Facilities

The gallery is on the ground floor and is approximately 1500 square feet; the entrance is from the riverside and is wheelchair accessible.

Catering

We have no tied caterers and we do not charge for corkage. We are able to recommend caterers, or you are free to bring a professional caterer of your own choice.

Location

Bankside Gallery is situated on the Thames river front, directly beside Tate Modern in the Bankside area of London; a vibrant cultural quarter, also rich in local character and history.

Getting to the gallery is easy with the many transport links nearby; Blackfriars Station south entrance is directly adjacent to the gallery, and Southwark, London Bridge and Blackfriars underground stations are in easy walking distance.

Hire Rates include:

- Exclusive use of the Gallery from 6pm until as late as 11pm
- Adjoining kitchen space (catering equipment not included)
- Event management support and reception staffing
- PA system with handheld microphone
- Wheelchair access
- Coat racks
